

Join the LCS community

Continuous learning

Now that you have been awarded your Certificate of Lean Competency, you are eligible for LCS Practitioner Membership - a free benefit that will provide opportunities for your ongoing lean learning and professional development.

It's centred on an exclusive website where lean thinkers can come together to communicate ideas, debate issues, find information and solve problems.

The benefits of LCS Practitioner Membership

- ✓ Create a digital credential profile and showcase it to the community
- ✓ Collaborate with fellow practitioners
- ✓ Access resources to help in teaching and applying lean thinking
- ✓ Learn about new tools and techniques
- ✓ Promote your ideas by publishing articles
- ✓ Find out about lean events or advertise events you are organising
- ✓ Participate in business focused research
- ✓ The option to upgrade to Premium Practitioner Membership and access LCS Continuing Professional Development

How to become an LCS Practitioner Member

- ✓ Visit www.leancompetency.org or scan the QR code at the top of the page
- ✓ Click 'account', then 'register' (top-right corner)
- ✓ Click 'sign up' in the Standard Practitioner Membership box
- ✓ Complete the form
- ✓ Submit and receive confirmation
- ✓ Wait for verification, then create your digital profile and start engaging!

Digital Credentials

LCS Practitioner Members can link to their personal profiles from social media and display their digital award badges in emails, social media, and on business cards, etc. Badges can be downloaded from the LCS website.

Enamel pin badge versions also available from the LCS Shop.
