

Benefits for Practitioners

Develops kata knowledge & practical competence

- ✓ Motivates, rewards & fosters engagement
- ✓ Recognised university linked qualification
- ✓ Provides a progressive kata qualifications framework
- ✓ Free practitioner membership for continual learning & networking
- ✓ Offers a framework for professional development

Benefits for Organisations

Helps develop kata capability and a scientific thinking mindset

- ✓ KCS certification rewards employees and recognises effort and achievement, thus boosting engagement and fostering commitment.
- ✓ The accrediting process improves the design, integration and professionalism of your training.
- ✓ It allows for rapid and cost effective scalability of CI staff competency, creating a cohort of improvers to generate CI momentum.
- ✓ Your training programme receives external endorsement from a respected institution.
- ✓ The KCS qualifications structure helps promote employees' professional and technical development.
- ✓ It links your training with practical application, so directly benefiting business performance.
- ✓ It gives you a standard you can apply throughout the organisation.

