

Join the LCS community

Peer-to-peer learning

Now that you have been awarded your Certificate of Lean Competency, you are eligible for LCS Practitioner Membership - a free benefit that will provide opportunities for your ongoing lean learning and professional development.

It's centred on an exclusive website where lean thinkers can come together to communicate ideas, debate issues, find information and solve problems.

The benefits of LCS Practitioner Membership

- ✓ Collaborate with fellow practitioners
- ✓ Access resources to help in teaching and applying lean thinking
- ✓ Learn about new tools and techniques
- ✓ Find help in solving problems
- ✓ Promote your ideas by publishing articles
- ✓ Find out about lean events or advertise events you are organising
- ✓ Discover the latest news about the LCS
- ✓ Join forums or networks and initiate discussions about topical lean issues
- ✓ Participate in business focussed research

How to obtain your LCS Practitioner Membership

- ✓ Visit www.leancompetency.org or scan the QR code at the top of the page
- ✓ Click 'register' (top-right corner)
- ✓ Click 'register your certificate' in the Practitioner Membership box
- ✓ Complete the form
- ✓ Submit and receive confirmation
- ✓ Wait for a verification, then update your profile and start engaging!

Display your award

All LCS certificate holders can display a personal digital award badge in emails, social media, business cards, etc. These can be downloaded from the LCS website.

Enamel pin badge versions also available from the LCS Shop.

Digital Download

Shop

For more information...

Find out more about Continuing Professional Development by visiting the LCS CPD webpage by clicking on the button below.

About CPD