

Benefits for Practitioners

Develops lean knowledge & practical competence

- Motivates, rewards & fosters engagement
- Recognised university linked qualification
- Provides a progressive lean qualifications framework
- Free practitioner membership for continual learning & networking
- Offers a framework for professional development

Benefits for Organisations

Helps develop lean capability & continuous improvement culture

- Recognises and rewards staff
- Creates a universal standard for the organisation
- Promotes staff professional development
- Provides a means to link training with application
- Provides external endorsement of training
- Enhances training system design, integration and professionalism
- A flexible framework that can be adapted to suit the organisation's CI approach
- Helps foster positive staff engagement and an improvement culture

